MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service
THROUGH: Chief, Operations Group
SUBJECT: Monthly Report, Okinawa Bureau--October 1982

I. GENERAL

Campaigning for the November Japanese Diet and gubernatorial elections is underway, with the usual loudspeaker trucks cruising the highways and byways. Japanese Communist Party Presidium Chairman Tetsuzo Fuwa visited Okinawa on a campaign swing and revealed the existence of a mysterious "giant talk station" on Kadena Airbase. His "revelations" about the station, actually a SAC communications/command/control facility, caused little local reaction; they were reported without comment by both main local newspapers, as was the Kadena Airbase spokesman's statement explaining the nature of the facility.

II. OPERATIONS

delivered to the Russian Unit, texted, edited and wirefiled on a realtime basis with encouraging results. Training of fax operators is continuing, and daily fax runs are scheduled throughout the October Revolution celebrations and the November Central Committee plenum and Supreme Soviet session.

2. In response to an AG request, the bureau on 2 October began wirefiling daily program summaries of scheduled Moscow Mandarin voicecasts in light of the greatly reduced level of Soviet criticism of China in connection with the October Sino-Soviet talks in Beijing. Processing from these casts and from the clandestine Ba Yi radio has increased concurrently.

3. From 4-13 October, we filed a daily consolidated program summary of the Moscow Television "Novosti" program transmitted over the 85E bird in support of AG's survey of this news show.

STAT

B. Coverage

The bureau assumed video and program summary coverage on 30 October of the Saturday and Sunday editions of the Moscow Domestic Television "Vremya" 1800 GMT newscasts to help reduce the weekend backlog workload on London Bureau's lone Russian monitor.

C. Cruising

1. Beijing television test transmissions, begun in June [redacted] ended on 5 October. The end of this testing was confirmed later by the Shanghai radio and XINHUA. Comparisons revealed that the newscast carried daily on these transmissions was identical in timing and content to that monitored regularly by Hong Kong Bureau. Later Chinese pass-feed television material was observed on 20 and 25 October on the Intelsat 63E satellite, and checks for Chinese Television broadcasts are continuing.
